

Khofiz Shahidi

Chairman

An expert in emerging markets. He has a broad background in the investment industry. He entered the banking industry through the investment division of Credit Agricole; later, he worked at BSI Bank in the UK and then in Monaco. Mr Shahidi runs several businesses in logistics and finance.

Members of the Supervisory Board

Nargis Esufbekova

Head of Secretariat of the Board of coordination of the development

She is responsible for overseeing the country's overall socioeconomic development. Nargis supervises relationships with the governmental bodies of the Republic of Tajikistan. Her experience includes non-profit international organizations, trading companies and finance firms. She was in charge of macroeconomics, public financial management, and private sector development. She holds an MA in Development Management from the London School of Economics and Political Science.

Shukhrat Mirzoev

Shukhrat Mirzoev is the Chairman of the Audit Committee of the Bank. Shukhrat holds several degrees in economics from Tajik, British and American universities and has over 16 years of professional experience in economic development, including public financial management, strategic planning and economic diagnostics. Shukhrat Mirzoev worked as a regional economic adviser at the UK Department for International Development, managing a portfolio of projects in Tajikistan and Kyrgyzstan. In addition, he is a co-founder of a consulting company “Irshad Consulting”.

Azamat Sultonov

CEO of Fortu Wealth Ltd. He graduated from the Moscow State Institute of International Relations, with a major in International Relations as well as a degree from the London School of Business and Finance. He holds a PhD in political science from the Russian Academy of National Economy and Public Administration under the President of the Russian Federation. Azamat deals with matters in investment management and ultra-high savings in the family business.

Nuriddin Akhmedov

Investment Director at Atoll Capital, overseeing leveraged buy-outs and private equity deals. Over the past decade, he has closed deals worth over $2 billion. He started his career at EY and later focused on TMT, financial services, real estate, pharma, and consumer businesses. Nuriddin has worked with leading private equity firms in the CIS and Alfa Bank. He has invested over $5 million in B2B software across the US, Europe, and the CIS as an angel investor. His corporate finance and governance expertise includes strategic planning, value creation, M&A, and IPOs.